

H2O® Wireless Creates a Smoother Experience for Customers

Relaunches Their Website With Added Features and a Fresh Design

Fort Lee, NJ (PRWEB) March 07, 2014 -- H2O Wireless recently debuted its revamped website. Customers are welcomed to a sleeker design with new features, easier navigation, and an overall refreshing experience.

Truly a labor of love, H2O's design and technical teams worked tirelessly to ensure the fruition of the relaunch. In addition to the customary tabs, H2O also introduced a new search feature, user friendly account management tools, and easier access to products and services for new prospects.

By enhancing the overall shopping experience for new prospects and nurturing the current relationships with customers, H2O maintains its belief in putting the needs of the customer first.
